WESTERLY GAME TIE

Called on Account of Darkness when Score was 3 to 3—
New Steel Bridge Over Pawcatuck River—William B. Treadway, of Norwich Among Successful Applicants for Admission to Practice Medicine—Boat Club's Sports and Dinner.

There are many in North Kingston who have tired of the open ballot system that prevails in that town and they have taken preliminary steps for a secret ballot. Numerous signed petitions have been filed with the town clerk requesting that in the call for the town election a clause be inserted providing for a vote for the adoption of the secret ballot system. The petition contained the names of democrats and republicans alike, which indicates a strong feeling to do away with the old-fashioned open ballot in town elections, to which many ascribe the defeat of all reform measures in the past. This question will now go on the town ballot in the November election and the voters will have opportunity to decide whether the secret ballot is wanted.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Rhode Island will hold its second annual institute in the First Baptist church, Providence, next Wednesday, and the churches of Westerly will have representation. The speakers will be Mrs. Franklin G. McKee, formerly of New London, Mrs. Carrie A. Robinson of Boston and Mrs. P. I. Angell, Miss Mary A. Green and Miss Mary W. Cross of Providence. Missionary workers of all denominations will participate in the sessions. The subjects selected by the committee for discussion will be The Gospel in Latin Lands, The Golden Key, From Darkness to Light and The Pioneer. Mrs. Frances G. Draper of Pawcatuck will preside at the afternoon session and Miss Mary E. Greene will have charge of the evening session. Following is the program: Opening exercises, 2:30; From Darkness to Light, Mrs. Franklin G. McKee; The Pioneer, Miss Mary W. Cross; The Gospel in Latin Lands, Miss Mary A. Greene; The Golden Key, Mrs. Mary P. Angell; Missions in the Sunday School, Mrs. Carrie Robinson. At the evening service there will be an address on Home Mission Handicraft by Miss Harry W. Cross.

Out of fourteen applicants who took the examinations before the state board of education for the Pawcatuck school to practice medicine in the state only eight received the percentage required to entitle the applicant to a license. The following passed successfully: Lionel M. Archambault, Arctic; William H. Briggs, Portland, Me.; Arthur J. Cole, Portsmouth, R. I.; Frederick J. Farrell, Providence; John J. Hoy, Providence; John W. Sweeney, Providence; William B. Treadway, Norwich; and Niles Westcott, Oakland.

Fifty members of the Rhode Island Citizens' Historical society visited the state college at Kingston Saturday and were entertained at luncheon. President Edwards gave a short address of welcome and the visitors made a tour of the college buildings. The various departments of the institution accompanied by members of the governing board.

Before leaving Kingston the party visited the old state building, the public library, the Congregational church and the old and new jails as well as points of historical interest.

The work of putting in a new railroad bridge to take the place of the one that has been in service over the Pawcatuck river just west of the Westerly station has progressed rapidly and without interfering with the operation of trains. The new structure is wholly of steel and is being placed by the Boston Bridge company, with the aid of one of the company's big motor derricks, which can be run along the rails as handily as a locomotive, and thus be run onto a siding to get out of the way of approaching trains without the aid of switching engine. It is expected that within a week the new bridge will be completed and all traffic of the old bridge removed. A large gang of experienced bridge builders has been employed and the work has gone steadily along without hitch or mishap.

The annual meeting, field sports and dinner of the Grayling Motor Boat Club were held Saturday afternoon in Pawcatuck. Officers were elected as follows: George Murphy, commodore; Joseph Blosser, vice commodore; A. H. Sweet, secretary; Elvira Crumb, treasurer; George Thompson, fleet captain; A. T. Crumb, wharfinger.

With Jack Frill in the pitcher's box for Westerly, the champions of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league were unable to defeat the cream of the other players in the league in an exhibition game for the benefit of Lloyd Noyes on Tuesday grounds Saturday afternoon. With the game tied in the ninth inning, 3 to 3, game was called on account of darkness. The Westerlys played a loose game, making seven errors, which in a measure accounts for the result.

The score:

Entrance was effected by removing a pane of glass both times and it is believed the same person made both visitations.
C. Clarence Maxson, Jr., of Westerly, student at Brown university, had his face severely burned by an explosion of acetylene gas. The headlight of an automobile light became extinguished, the gas escaping into the lamp. When Mr. Maxson opened the lantern door and applied a lighted match a flame burst out into his face. ## OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 3, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.
